Pomme I Lake News

Pomme I brought 31 boats to one of our favorite lakes that we fish.

The weather on both days started cold, in the mid 30's but warmed nicely with sun each day. Finally, a weekend without 45mph winds. Saturday was pretty perfect but Sunday, with a cold front, we had an hour + delay due to fog. We were able to make up time by extending the day an hour.

Water temps ranged around 60 degrees. Water level was just up in the bushes a little bit at 841 ft.

Most of us were able to find our limits on Saturday with Sunday being just a bit harder to fish due to the cold front.

Greg Shands reported catching a smallmouth on Pomme. Anyone else ever done that? I have found a few reports of them on the internet.
